

Charles Darwin
1809 – 1882

Statue of Charles Darwin in the Natural History Museum

Some of Charles Darwin's original specimens are kept at the Natural History Museum, London

The Beagle - The ship Charles Darwin sailed on for his voyage around the world from 1831 – 1836

Creatures discovered on the Galapagos Islands by Darwin: giant tortoise

Darwin developed the theory of evolution

Bartolome Island
Darwin visited the Galapagos Islands in 1835

South Plaza Island
Darwin visited the Galapagos Islands in 1835

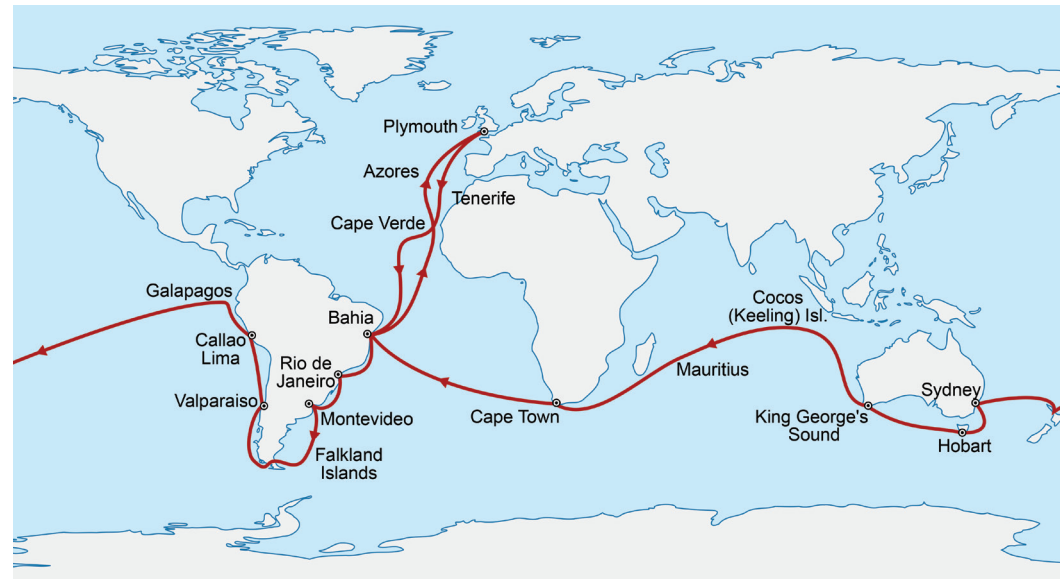

Creatures discovered on the Galapagos Islands by Darwin: marine iguana

Creatures discovered on the Galapagos Islands by Darwin: finches (This one is known as the Darwin finch)

Creatures discovered on the Galapagos Islands by Darwin: blue-footed boobies

A map showing the route for Darwin's voyage around the world on The Beagle.